Reminders from the Office:

Please make sure to call the office if you need to update contracts or registration forms. If you phone numbers or address changes, please tell your provider and our office.

Please make sure to update your subsidy well before your end dates. If your end date is for example December 31, please update in the end of November or beginning of December.

Remember we as an office are closed from December 24 until January 2. Check with your provider to see what days they will be closed, most are closing for the full time as well. There will not be any back up for this time.

Please make sure to honour your payment arrangement. We do not have the time to call each provider every month for payment, please make sure to come in and pay on your own.

It's Christmas

By Tina Burke

It's that time of year, that special time of the year, when magic happens, and we wait for that very special guest to arrive... From the unique talent of Tina Burke comes a delightful tale about the joy that surrounds Christmas.
