

Wee R Kids

September Parent News

Helping Families GROW together!

Welcome to October! Some fun holidays happen this month and I hope you are all looking forward to turkey and chocolate! We are so excited to see the fantastic activities in each home this month. I hope you all have wonderful plans to spend time with friends and family for Thanksgiving and for those of you trick or treating that you have a fun and safe holiday. Just a mention, I will be out of the office the first week of November, if you need anything please contact Gini, however if she is not answering please be patient she will return your call. Happy Thanksgiving and Halloween!

~Angel

Statutory Holidays:

Thanksgiving

Monday, October 14, 2013

The Wee R Kids office and as well as our day homes will be closed on all statutory holidays.

Local Happenings

Saturday's at the Galt Museum

All classes are between 1-2pm

05 Harvest Festival

12 Herb Garden

19 Kaleidoscopes

12 Felt Balls

Siblings of Children with Special Needs

1:00pm~4:00pm

Key Connections Consulting

Goals:

- Meet other siblings in a relaxed setting
- Identify their own unique strengths and challenges
- Engage in discussion about common joys and concerns with other siblings of children with special needs
- Learn from others how to handle situations commonly experienced
- Learn more about specific disabilities and how the impact one's life

Contact: 524-2522 or

ChristinaWKCC@gmail.com

Autumn is a second spring when every leaf is a flower.

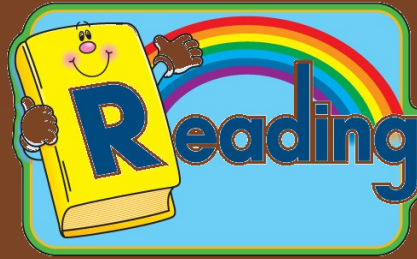

~Albert Camus

Reminders from the Office:

Please remember to honour your payment arrangements. If for some reason you cannot make a payment when it is due, please ensure that you call the office to make new arrangements.

Please also make sure that you are updating your subsidy prior to the due date. Anything that needs to be handed in such as tax documents you will need to hand in at least a month in advance as they are always at least three weeks behind. Right now they are five weeks behind.

Please remember that our office is closed from December 24—January 2 for Christmas and New Year, please check with your providers as our homes normally close at that time too. Back up will not be available during the holidays.

Corner

Thanksgiving

By Lynn Peppas

It's time to carve the turkey and give thanks! Thanksgiving explores in colorful detail this national holiday, from mashed potatoes and gravy to the religious observances. Learn the history of Thanksgiving, from its first pilgrim celebration in 1621, to its celebration in modern day.

All books can be found at the Lethbridge Public Library.

Comic Relief

